I can relate to most of this film

I know a lot more, thank you. It's so sad how our people, woman and children were treated back in the day makes me sad and very angry how them so called priests got away with all that messed up things they did.

Our Grandparents would not teach us Dakota language due to their treatment in boarding schools. They thought of we talked Dakota we would be beaten, So this is 100% true and hit close to my whole family as all the fluent speakers are now gone. Now I understand a lot more why they made this decision.

It kind of explains Historical Trauma
